OUR APPROACH

KIPP Bayview Academy derives its name from the most important element of our approach, the community we serve. We strive to prepare our students for the academic rigor they will encounter on their journey to and through college. Through the use of personalized learning and technology, we meet each learner where they are and push them to achieve high levels of growth and mastery. Our skilled educators monitor students' mastery through daily exit tickets, track progress toward Common Core standards, and make necessary adjustments to their instruction to best suit student needs. We believe in a restorative approach for classroom management and school-wide discipline. Social-emotional lessons are an essential part of our community and students participate in community building circles weekly, with an emphasis on building on their existing character strengths.

KIPP BAYVIEW ACADEMY

KIPP Bayview Academy is a free, college-preparatory, public middle school located in the Bayview-Hunters Point neighborhood of San Francisco. Since KIPP Bayview Academy opened its doors in 2003, it has consistently proven that, with high expectations, a nurturing environment, and highly-effective teachers, students will thrive. Many students continue to benefit from KIPP's academic rigor and focus on character after eighth grade when they move on to KIPP San Francisco College Preparatory in Bayview-Hunters Point for high school. KIPP Bayview Academy is one of 15 KIPP schools in the Bay Area and 224 KIPP schools nationally educating nearly 100,000 students on their path to and through college.
